

Chronicle.—The engagement has just been announced of Miss Anna Bard, daughter of ex-Senator and Mrs. Bard of Southern California, and Ensign Sherwood Ayres Taffinder, U. S. N. Miss Bard is at present en route home from Honolulu, where the interesting announcement was made only a few days ago. The news was cabled to Senator and Mrs. Bard, who have made the formal announcement of their daughter's betrothal. Miss Bard has been the guest of friends in Honolulu for several months. On her arrival this week she will join her parents at their home in Hueneme. Miss Bard is an unusually attractive girl, who is well known in San Francisco society. She is a graduate of Miss Head's School. Her mother was Miss Gerberding, sister of the late Albert Gerberding of this city, and the family has made frequent visits here. Ensign Taffinder is at present on duty with his ship in the Orient. The fleet will return in February, and it is probable the marriage will be an event of early spring.

Mrs. Hind of Kohala entertained in honor of Mrs. Robert Hind and Mrs. Matthewsman on last Tuesday. The evening was delightfully passed with the reading of Jean Ingelow's poem "Songs of Seven" with a musical accompaniment and the following cast: Miss Katharine Renton, Miss Bertha Clark, Miss Elinor Rogers, Miss Ruth Gessell, Miss Cornelia Gessell and Miss Ethel McCormick.

The Kohala Midge says that that community learns with regret of the contemplated removal of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Bond to Honolulu. Mr. Bond is one of the oldest residents of the district and as surveyor and agriculturist has been active in its affairs from his youth. Mrs. Bond has been a popular social leader, as well as principal of our largest school, and leaves a host of Mrs. A. R. Gurrey Jr., Mrs. S. D. Heapy, Mrs. G. Schmidt, Mrs. S. B. Dole, Miss G. Robertson, Miss Alice Spalding and A. H. Parke.

Miss Leslie E. Wight departed on the Alameda on Wednesday bound for Berlin where she goes to become the bride of Herr Hurum. She will stop in New York for some time to add to her trousseau from the shops of that city. Before leaving Miss Wight was the recipient of a large chest of solid silver from her grandmother, Mrs. E. K. Wilder.

Captain and Mrs. James R. Pourie are soon to have as their guests Mrs. Conway Nash and her son of San Francisco. Mrs. Nash is expected to arrive on the next trip of the Alameda.

Mrs. Robert Lishman announces the marriage of her daughter, Jane L. More, to William Adolphus Brown of Chile, South America. Mr. and Mrs. Brown were married in New York city and left at once for London where they will spend several months.

Among the passengers arriving on the Mauna Kea yesterday morning were Mr. and Mrs. John Hind and Mrs. Renton Hind of Kohala, and Miss Miriam Hall. The party are stopping at the Pleasanton and the tennis followers are looking forward to another match to be played by Mrs. Renton Hind and Miss Hall.

French Consul Menant and Mme. Menant gave a farewell dinner Thursday evening previous to their departure for Amsterdam. Those present were Consul R. G. E. Forster and Mrs. Forster, Madame Prique, Madame Ruez, Consul General Uyeno, Consul Antonio Souza de Canavarro, Doctor and Mrs. C. B. Cooper.

Francis M. Hatch, Mrs. Hatch and Miss Harriet Hatch departed on the Manchuria for San Francisco en route to Washington, where they will spend the winter.

At the Arbor Day exercises at Mrs. Gunn's school, Mrs. Francis Swanzy spoke to the children as a member of the Conservation League. Mrs. Swanzy delivered a most interesting history of the first royal palm tree in Honolulu the seed of which was brought here by her grandfather, Doctor Judd. The doctor brought the seed from Jamaica en route home from a trip to Europe in company with the Princes Alexander and Lot.

Mrs. Charles Chillingworth, wife of Senator Chillingworth, who has been visiting on the mainland for several months was a returning passenger on the Alameda.

The members of the Manoa Tennis Club are planning an innovation in the way of night tennis matches. The plans are to light one of the courts with a large arc light and to paint rings on the balls to make them show up better.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Gaines, accompanied by their niece Miss B. Sharpe, will leave tomorrow on the Siberia for Shanghai where Mr. Gaines goes to take charge of the cable office.

One of the most enjoyable affairs of the week was a tea given by Mrs. R. C. Stackable for a number of the members of the younger social set. Among those present were the Misses Grant, Fraser, Florence Lee, Irmgard Schaefer, Blanche Soper, Agnes Wickstrum, Gemma Wadman, Anna Tucker, Iwalani Jaeger, Mrs. Chester Livingston and Mrs. Austin.

One of the elaborate dinner parties of the week was given by Henry Wichman at which the guests of honor were Governor and Mrs. Walter F. Frear. American Beauty roses decorated the table at which were seated Governor and Mrs. Frear, Admiral Rees and Mrs. Corwin P. Rees, Doctor and Mrs. Hobdy, Mr. and Mrs. Brainerd Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Walker and Mrs. Mary Gunn.

Saturday evening was a triumph of social enjoyment to those Kukuiahae folks favored with an invitation to the luau given by Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Wilson in honor of the birth of a son and heir. The spacious diningroom of the head luna's house was very tastefully decorated and proved to be none too large to accommodate the guests. Hawaiian dishes and courses innumerable, prepared by one worthy of a diploma, tempted the palate of those assembled around the festive board, who participated and did ample justice to them. Among the guests were: Mr. and Miss Ahrens, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Barclay, Mrs. Hattie, Miss Verlie Kuhns, Messrs. J. Jorgensen, Robert Fricke, Jas. Laird, W. Hattie, E. Koelling, William Chalmers and others.

The local members of the Psi Upsilon Fraternity—one of the leading college Greek letter societies of the United States—held a dinner yesterday at the Pacific Club in commemoration of the seventy-sixth anniversary of the founding of the fraternity. The occasion was one of college reminiscences, and college and fraternity songs. Those present were Governor Walter F. Frear.

The exhibition of the work of the members of the Kiloheana Art League opened at the art rooms on Thursday evening and society turned out en masse. There were examples of the work of all of the local artists and each one received its full share of the praise. Howard Hitchcock has a number of large pictures displayed which were all executed in his well-known bold style. Other names signed to the many beautiful works of art include Mrs. L. Marshall, Mrs. Pierre Jones, friends. They are making preparations to leave their beautiful home on the hill about the middle of January, to join Robert in the new home he is building in the Manoa Valley, Honolulu, where we wish them much happiness.

Mrs. McGuire of Kona is the house guest of the Misses Wood at their home in Kohala.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Berg are spending the week end at Malukukui.
